It was out of the usual order, and very appropriate. happily conceived and gracefully expressed. The allusion to Protessor Harris, the beloved and accomplished professor of Greek, elicited from the students the heartiest applause. Mr. McMannaway's speech prophesies distinction for the young orator. Mr. L. F. Nock, of Accomac, a graceful and fine-looking young man, was one of the selected orators of his Society, and quite well did he discharge the bonorable duty. His subject was "Vanity of earthly glory compared with moral greatness." Mr. Nock showed that his time at college had not been wasted, but that while disciplining his mind by severe study he had stored it with solid information.

Mr. A. P. Pugh, of South Carolina, was the second orator. His appropriate subject was "Personal Independence in Thought." He elaborated the benefits resulting from mental power, and urged the importance of self-relance and decision in thinking. The speech was well-received. Hon. A. M. Keiley, the mayor of our city delivered a chaste address on presenting the isual medals. He spoke of Richmond Colege as one of the noblest monuments in the history of our city, and expressed his pride in participating in any of its services. He inforced with much beauty and eloquence the necessity of cultivating the art of speech.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, ? RICHMOND. VA., 19th June, 1875.

Mr. J. D. Redwood, Secretary James River Towing and Transportation Company: It is my duty to notify you that a communication has been sent me by the Gallego Mills Manufacturing Company, complaining of a refusal on your part, in behalf of your company, to lighter part of a cargo of flour, about 2,000 barrels, to City Point, for a vessel now being loaded by said company, on the ground that the vessel in question did not employ your tug-boat going down the river, and that conformable to the instructions of your board of directors, you decline to lighter any portion of a cargo to a vessel which does not employ the tugs of your company for the

This position appears so very remarkable and, permit me to say, so suicidal to the interest of your company, that besides inviting you, as I shall do, to be present at the special meeting of our board, which doubtless will be called early next week to consider this subject, and which may justly be deemed as seriously obstructing and injuring the commerce of our city (saying nothing of the in-terest of your company), I beg leave to call your earnest attention to it in behalf of your company, which cannot fail to be the loser by such a course-a course which would surely be deemed impolitic by an individual seeking patronage from the mercantile community, and all the more impolitic on the part of a chartered company which has enenjoyed the liberal patronage of our shippers, the more so as it is well known that the shipper of the cargo has no control over the towage of the vessel chartered by him, and which is universally left to the option of the cap'ain, and in many cases ar-

There can be little doubt that if your company adheres to a determination of obstructng instead of facilitating business arrangements, our shippers will devise means of dispensing with its services altogether.

Hoping you will ponder on these suggestions in the spirit in which they are offered, I remain yours, respectfully.

THE KEY OF A HISTORICAL MANSION .- D. Morgan White, E-q., of Louisville, Ky., yesterday presented the State Library with a key taken from the ruins of Herman Blannerhassett's house, on Blannerhassett Island, burg, West Va. Mr. White obtained it from the ruins of the house in 1867. The ing deeds to be made to the purchasers of mansion itself, in its day the wonder of the western country, was burned sixty years ago. It was there that Blannerhassett and Aaron Burr indulged those dreams of empire that caused the arrest of both and the trial in this city, before Chief Justice John Marshall, of Aaron Burr for treason.

CHERISHED DESIRE.

For years it has been the cherished desire of large class that there might be a medic ne discovered which would entirely cure Scrofula and not leave a taint of the disease in the system.

cetting aside all controversy upon the theory of ransmissible scrofula, the fact is indisputable that the disease has existed for centuries, and was never more prevalent than at the present time; and though it is heredi'ary in its nature, the more frequent cause of the disease may be attributed to whatever impairs the vital energies, such as dissipation, unwholesome food, intemperance, want of cleanliness of person, over-exertion of mind of Lody, etc. Scrofula often manifests Itself in glandular tumors, frequently in the neck, causing no pain at first, but procee is slowly to an inflammatory state. and generally after a long time, forms an ulcer. In court they would ask that the right be given some cases the eyes are the principal seat of the disease, having constantly an inflamed appearance. The bones of scrofulous persons are liable to disease, especially those of the spine. The lungs are particularly liable to an attack by the formation of tubercles, and invalids are often deceived into the belief that they have deep-seated consumption, and for which they are treated, when in reality their trouble is caused from scrofuta in the blood.

In all the various forms of scrofula and the long train of diseases it induces, the patient can only obtain substantial benefit through the blood with vegetable substances, and from which VEGETINE carefully compounded from the best ingredients the dispensary of nature furnishes, making it one of the greatest cleansers of the blood that is or can

His Departure from "the Island" and Appearance in Cours_Legal War of Words between Counsel-Miner Bail-Bonds Fatt to Save Him from Commitment-The 83,000,000 Bond Not Forthcoming.

NEW YORK, June 22 .- William M. Tweed his morning appeared in the court-house in custody of Deputy Sheriff McGorigie. He was smuggled from Blockwell's Island last night at 10 o'clock despite the vigifance of the representatives of the city newspapers, who had been on the island for a week. It being generally expected that he would be brought to court to-day, a large number of people gathered in the vicinity of the courthouse for the purpose of getting a sight of In the Supreme Court chambers, one of Tweed's counsel, Mr. Willard Bartlett, presented to Judge Lavis an order which was signed by him, setting forth the reversal of the Court of Appeals, which was made the order of the Supreme Court, and the prisoner's discharge ordered. Mr. Foster Dewey was the first of the Tweed party to enter the court-room. He had hardly taken his seat when Tweed entered in charge of the deputy sheriff. In a very short time the court-room was packed with people, and immense numbers were clamoring for admittance. After order had been restored District Attorney Phelps addressed the court, and moved that the defendant, Walliam M. Tweed, be arraigned to plead to an indictment found against bim in November, 1873 Mr. David Dudley Field, on behalf of Mr Tweed, stated they were not ready to plead or make a motion to quash; that they had only received notice of this indictment a few days since, and therefore time ought to be allowed them to examine matters. Mr. Peckham, on behalf of the people stated that it was evident the defendant intended to pursue the old tactics and stave off all proceedings as long as possible. Mr. Field disclaimed any such intention, and stated that in law time ought to be allowed him to examine the indictment; and further, that if they were forced to file their plea they would demand the right to withdraw it at any time; that it was a shame and cruelly wrong to find an indictment in advance, and then, two years afterwards, call them up without warning to plead to it. The counsel further stated that if they

He further said it would not be considered a special favor to issue warrants in a civil suit for $6,000,000 and fix bail at the enormous figure of $3,000,000, and that such bail was unheard of. "Yes," said Mr. Peckham, "and the stealing of $6,000,000 was an unbeard-of thing until the detendant committed the theft." The matter was bere rested, and Judge

New York, June 22 .- John Morrissey who had been directed to appear before the Tummany Hall Committee on Discinting answer the charge of treason and conspiracy against the peace and weifare of the party, attended last night and answered a series of questions concerning his political course during the wister. Although Mr. Morrissey desired members of the press to be admitted the investigation was conducted in secret; but the preceedings are published in full

Mr. Morris-ey defended himself against the this morning. impeachment, and claimed that his course in opposing certain measures was more in the interest of Tammany Hall than the opposite conduct of its managers. In conclusion he told the committee the might as well make up a report for his ofpulsion, as he was not going to resign until he was ready.

The Herald, ip an article upon the dissa tisfaction existing against Tammany Hall, held a meeting last night with the object of forming in organization which it is hoped will supersede Tammany.

The Maine Democracy.

AUGUSTA, Mr., June 22 .- The Democratic State Convention met here to-day, 639 delegates being present. Samuel J. Anderson was chosen permanent president, and the usual committees were appointed.

At the afternoon session of the Convenion resolutions were adopted embodying the following declarations: The Constitution is the people's only safeguard; the rights of the people and the States must be sacredly preserved from the touch of military or congressional usurpation; civil supremacy in times of peace; equality of right of all men under the law; a sound currency-coin or its equivalent; a tariff for revenue only; an honest preservation of the public faith to the public creditor; a return to economy in the administration of the Government, national and State; the abolition of unnecessary municipal officers, and reduction of salary; one term for President, with a salary of $25,000.

The resolutions arraign the Republican party for abandonment of principles, profigacy, and corruption; condemn the Administration in strong terms for the responsibility of the Louisiana usurpation, and the attempt to suspend the writ of habeas corpus by the last Congress, and pronounce it no longer safe to trust the reins of government in such bands. The Administration is pronounced responsible for the present depressed condition of the country's commerce in all sections; for crippling shir-building; and for driving the American mercantile marine from the ocean. The people of Maine, suffering from the burden of oppressive taxation, demand reform, and appeal to all men, without regard to party names or past dif-
